LOCATION

Stansted Airport is located adjacent to Junction 8 of the M11 motorway, some 20 minutes from Junction 27 of the M25 on the Essex/Hertfordshire borders. The Airport is London's third international airport with one of the largest European networks and is served by a direct rail link to London Liverpool Street, stopping at Tottenham Hale for connections to the West End. Central Trains operate a regular service to Birmingham and Manchester, in addition to which the Airport has a coach station offering National Express coach services throughout the UK.

DESCRIPTION

The Business Centre has been designed as a flexible, modern working environment where many other businesses thrive. A wide range of services can be provided, including reception service.

Created within Endeavour House, a landmark building situated within the Airport boundary and within minutes of the main Airport Terminal, the specification includes comfort cooling, raised floors, excellent car parking, 24-hour manned reception, full height central atrium and express passenger lifts.
